Count One (1) of the Information

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Meriam Cardoso-Morales is hereby committed on Count One of the Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 30 months. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318; but not limited to, the condition that defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. As directed the Probation Officer, the defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment. Thereafter, defendant shall also submit to periodic drug testing as directed by the Probation Officer, not to exceed eight drug tests per month;
3. The defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and when deported or removed from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office, located at the United States Court House, 312 North Spring Street, Suite 600, Los Angeles, California 90012;

4. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, without prior written approval of the Probation Officer; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than her true legal name; and
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The defendant waives her right to appeal.

The Court recommends Bureau of Prisons designate defendant in a facility near the United States Border near Mexico.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
